Speaker: Joshua Symonette

Scripture: Psalm 25:1-5

Note to Leaders:

In our quest to reboot at the beginning of the year. There is no doubt that there are goals and resolutions we want to pursue. There is nothing wrong with that. But often, the difference between success and failure in our lives has nothing to do with accomplishing these goals. It has everything to do with basic spiritual disciplines, to which EVERYTHING is connected. When it is all said and done, maximizing the capacity and potential of our lives comes back to the basics.

Sermon Series Questions:

1. What did God reveal to you?
2. What are you going to do about it?
3. What is one element of God's character you learned?

Sermon Specific Questions:

1. What areas of your life do you need to ask God to "show me your way" like David.
2. Read Isaiah 55:8-9. The Hebrew word for "way" is synonymous with "a road". What is God saying to you through this passage? What is your response?
3. What road have you started down this year? Did you ask permission from God before or after?
4. What daily disciplines do you need to put into place to get where you need to go?
