

Out of the Shadows: Fear April 22 & 23

Speaker: Joshua Symonette

Scripture: Matthew 6:33

Sermon Overview

The pattern of our world is centered around fear, worry, and anxiety. We are constantly concerned about our performance, how we are perceived, and what we can possess. Jesus speaks to this by telling us to give no thought to our life. He often juxtaposes fear and faith, telling us to not to worry or be afraid. But only believe.

Sermon Series Questions:

1. What has been your most prevalent emotion this week?
2. Share one thing that the Holy Spirit reveal to you concerning the topic this week.

Sermon Specific Questions:

1. What areas of your life has fear crept in?
2. What step of faith do you need to take this week to experience freedom from overshadowing fear?
3. Read Matthew 6:33. Pastor Joshua said that Matthew 6:33 is about “seeking Him as a priority – seeking the owner of the earth and everything in it. And seeking the correctness of thinking, feeling, and acting.” In what ways are you seeking Him first and His kingdom and His righteousness?
4. How can you practically choose faith over fear in your daily decisions this week?
