

Better Together, Week 4 February 23 & 24

Speaker: Joel Schmidgall

Scripture: Romans 12:9-12

Sermon Overview

With every new season comes a new anointing. Today we will step into the season we're walking in as a church and talk through some of the prayer convictions that will lead us into this next step of our church's vision. It's both about where we're going as well as who we are becoming. Becoming a naming community, a house of healing, a sent people. Who we become is determined by the commitment of every person that's a part of this church family.

Sermon Series Questions:

1. Share about a relationship that is currently making you better?
2. What did God reveal to you about your relationships this week?

Sermon Specific Questions:

1. What does it mean to show honor toward someone? What is a practical way you can show honor to someone else this week?
2. What holds you back from fully engaging those in your community and loving generously?
3. In what ways are you blessed and how are you blessing your community?
4. How can you serve enthusiastically? Is there a place where there needs to be an attitude or posture shift?
5. How do we as a church move into a space of raw honesty and pure love within the church?
