

Better Together, Week 5 March 2 & 3

Speaker: Mark Batterson

Scripture: Psalm 139:1-18

Sermon Overview

There never has been and never will be anyone like you, but that isn't a testament to you. It's a testament to the God who created you absolutely unique. God knows you better than you know you, which is why a relationship with God is so critical. You cannot reach your full potential without the God who gave it to you. Yes, we are better together. But we are best in relationship with God.

Sermon Series Questions:

1. Share about a relationship that is currently making you better?
2. What did God reveal to you about your relationships this week?

Sermon Specific Questions:

1. We all have a longing for belonging. Where is a place you feel like you belong? How can you help others feel like they belong?
2. Who is someone you trust who can share with you about what they see in the arena and blind spot areas of your life?
3. Read and meditate on Psalm 139. What is God speaking to you through this Scripture?
4. "Let God be as original with others as He was with you" (Oswald Chambers). What does that mean to you and what difference does it make?
5. What's one area of your life you need to give back to God this week?
