

Better Together, Week 7 March 16 & 17

Speaker: Heather Zempel

Scripture: Acts 2:42-47, Matthew 2:16

Sermon Overview

Within 300 years of the siege of Jerusalem, the God of Israel had become the God of the Roman Empire. Against all odds, the church changed the course of history because they were gripped by the message of Jesus and galvanized by the reality of the resurrection.

Sermon Series Questions:

1. Share about a relationship that is currently making you better?
2. What did God reveal to you about your relationships this week?

Sermon Specific Questions:

1. Growing up, how would you describe your church community? Your view of church?
2. Why is it significant to be not just someone who consumes but someone who contributes to the church?
3. Reread Acts 2:42-47. What's one of the teachings in this passage that you can take a practical step with, to be more all in?
4. What would it look like for you to make your table more of a holy ground and create moments with?
5. Spend some time as a group (or individually) expressing gratitude and giving thanks. Celebrate wins and praises, and also spend time praying for one another.
