

The Lord's Prayer: Daily Bread March 3rd / 4th

Speaker: Campus Pastors

Scripture: Matthew 6:9-13; Luke 11:2-4

Note to Leaders:

This series we are exploring the Lord's Prayer. These questions provide a framework to prompt or foster discussion. Don't feel you have to use all or any of these questions and you don't have to make it to the end! Use the questions that best fit your group and let discussion flow. You can also use these questions on your own to dive deeper into this week's sermon.

Sermon Series Questions:

1. What did God reveal to you?
2. What are you going to do about it?
3. What is one element of God's character you learned?

Sermon Specific Questions:

Ballston Questions

1. "Give of this day our daily bread" is asking God to provide enough to sustain us today. What is one example of a way God has sustained you lately?
2. Read Matthew 7:7-11. We can approach God as his children and ask for things. What is something you have been asking God for?

Barracks Row AM/PM Questions

3. In our culture, it's hard to wait. Where does God want to cultivate a desire in you to wait seeking Him as long as it takes?
4. Where do you need to rely on provision for today instead of focusing on asking for provision for tomorrow or next week? What is the daily need you have today?

Lincoln Theater Questions

5. In the Greek, the word for “anxiety” is “merimnaō” and it means to go into pieces due to being pulled apart in opposite directions. Where do you feel anxious or pulled apart?

6. How can prayer be a tool to help deal with anxiety?

Potomac Yard Questions

7. God cares about everything in our lives, from the smallest needs, to the biggest needs in our lives. Share a time where He provided for you in the smallest need and in your biggest need.

8. What area of your life do you need to give to Him and depend and know God will meet you right where you need to be met?
